 you will misplace the return slip packaging over the holidays. Maybe will just keep the item because the process is one more thing to deal with your busy schedule and you will miss return deadline. Odds are on the other you will pay for the product, like not.
 Another trick of which I do not prove is showing a beautiful item as a wreath. "Only twenty-five dollars they will taunt. The wreath will look geous. This is the point where it pays to be a good listener.
 See those little trou-trou throughout that wreath? Each one extra charge and may be purchase the upcoming segment of the show. See that beautiful bow? That is extra, but no worries. They just have to have that for purchase, as well. Do not forget paying shipping handling charges, etc. and you will wreath for three hundred and thirty dollars and change. Change is a way they have of saying ninety cents!
 But of course there is always pay. Don't get me started on the member when I said the wreath twenty-five dollars? That was a pay price times four.
 It is a good reader, as well, because four equals one hundred dollars! If you choose to only purchase wreath without all the other parts balsam "skint chicken" as they the South, with the bird flu! Let the bright side. You can always it! Happy shopping!
